Terms and Conditions

All products and services included in this itinerary are subject to the terms and conditions of American Express, as defined herein, and the Suppliers, as defined in the Important Travel Notices, Terms and Conditions, which are incorporated herein and form part of these itinerary terms and conditions, including, without limitation, the Ticket Terms and Conditions and Other Important Notices referenced therein (collectively, "Terms"). No employee, representative, or agent of American Express Company, its subsidiaries and affiliates, including, without limitation, American Express Travel Related Services Company, Inc. (collectively, "American Express", "we", "our", "us") has authority to modify these Terms.

Your reservation/purchase may be non-refundable and non-cancellable. Any cancellation or change, if permitted, is subject to the policies of the Suppliers that you selected. At the time of reservation/purchase, your credit/charge card may be charged the total cost of the Supplier products and services that you selected, including taxes and fees and certain Supplier-imposed fees (but excluding any mandatory hotel-imposed charges that may be applicable upon check out from the hotel). You may see separate charges on your credit/charge card statement (from American Express and from the Suppliers you selected). If applicable, certain mandatory hotel-imposed charges are payable to the property upon check-out (e.g., mandatory resort fees); any incidental charges that you make during your stay will be charged to you by the property upon check-out, including but not limited to parking, phone calls, internet access and room service. Subject to hotel cancellation policies, if you want to modify your hotel reservation, your existing reservation may need to be cancelled and a new reservation made. Some Suppliers have age requirements/restrictions; please check with the Supplier for more information. Your reservation/purchase includes the products/services that you selected; therefore, if baggage, seat-selection, or similar ancillary items were not included in those products/services, additional Supplier fees may apply. If you purchased a flight, your flight is not confirmed until ticketed. Once ticketed, the name on the ticket cannot be changed and tickets are non-transferable. If permitted, changes to your reservation/purchase are subject to the policies of the Supplier that you selected. If permitted, and you choose to change your reservation/purchase, you may incur a change fee and any difference in the fare attributable to the change. If your reservation/purchase is with multiple Suppliers, and if cancellation is permitted by one Supplier and not the other, you will not be refunded for the portion of your trip for which cancellations are not permitted and you will be required to cancel your entire trip. If cancellation is permitted, you may incur a cancellation fee. The amount of the cancellation fee will depend on the policies of the Supplier that you selected. Upon receipt, you are responsible for promptly reviewing your reservation/purchase confirmation/itinerary for accuracy and immediately notifying us of any errors.

You acknowledge that you are responsible for knowing and complying with all government-imposed and Supplier-imposed travel policies, requirements, and restrictions, as well as any changes thereto, including without limitation visa and other international entry requirements. As these policies, requirements, and restrictions are constantly changing, please check Suppliers' websites and relevant government websites for your destinations of travel, prior to any cancellation deadlines and your dates of travel, including without limitation www.travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/international-travel.html, www.cdc.gov, www.tsa.gov, www.dot.gov, and www.faa.gov. Liability Statement. You understand and agree that American Express Travel Related Services Company, Inc. and its parent, subsidiaries, affiliates and representatives (collectively, "Amex"), when acting solely as a sales agent for travel suppliers, shall not be liable for any loss, injury, expense or damage to persons or property resulting, directly or indirectly, from (1) the acts of omissions of travel suppliers, including but not limited to delays, overbookings, cancellation of services, cessation of operations, accidents or failures of equipment, or changes in fares, itineraries or schedules; or (2) acts of God, fires, earthquakes, floods, climatic aberrations, acts of governmental authorities, civil unrest, strikes, riots, theft, disease; and accidents or failures related to the public internet, telecommunications lines or facilities, or third party technology systems, or any other cause beyond the control of Amex.

Intermediary Disclosure. Amex assists you in finding travel suppliers and making arrangements that meet your individual needs. We consider various factors in identifying travel suppliers to you and recommending specific itineraries. In this role, we are acting as an independent third party and not as a fiduciary. We want you to be aware that certain suppliers pay us commissions as well as incentives for reaching sales targets or other goals, and from time to time may also provide incentives to our Travel Consultants. Certain suppliers may also provide compensation to us for various marketing and administrative services that we perform for them, such as granting them access to our marketing channels, participating in marketing programs and supporting technology initiatives. In addition, we receive compensation from suppliers when customers use the American Express Card or other American Express products to pay for supplier products and services. From time to time, we may enter into other business relationships with suppliers and these arrangements, including levels and types of compensation and incentives we receive, are subject to change. In identifying suppliers and recommending itineraries, we may consider a number of factors, including supplier availability and your preferences. The relationships we have with suppliers may also influence the suppliers we identify and the itineraries we recommend.

CALIFORNIA: Upon cancellation of the transportation or travel services, where the passenger is not at fault and has not cancelled in violation of any terms and conditions previously clearly and conspicuously disclosed and agreed to by the passenger, all sums paid to the seller of travel for services not provided will be promptly reimbursed to the passenger unless the passenger otherwise advises the seller of travel in writing, after cancellation. This provision does not apply where the seller of travel has remitted the payment from customer to another registered wholesale seller of travel or a carrier, without obtaining a refund and such other provider fails to provide the agreed-upon transportation or service. In this situation, the initial seller of travel must provide the passenger with a written statement accompanied by bank records establishing the disbursement of the customer payment, and if disbursed to a registered wholesaler of travel, proof of current registration of that wholesaler. California law requires certain sellers of travel to have a trust account or bond. Amex has a bond issued by Travelers Casualty and Surety Company of Connecticut in the amount of $100,000. Amex is not a participant in the California Travel Consumer Restitution Fund.

WASHINGTON: If transportation or other services are canceled by the seller of travel, all sums paid to the seller of travel for services not performed in accordance with the contract between the seller of travel and the purchaser will be refunded within thirty (30) days of receiving the funds from the vendor with whom the services were arranged, or if the funds were not sent to the vendor, the funds shall be returned within fourteen (14) days after cancellation by the seller of travel to the purchaser unless the purchaser requests the seller of travel to apply the money to another travel product and/or date.
